

From the Director of Missions

“For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.” Those words were spoken by the angel to shepherds working out in the fields that incredible night when Christ was born. The message was not given to the wealthy or to the religious elite but was given to lowly shepherds. The Savior who was born that night was their Savior. When we consider this reality we can’t help but be amazed that Christ came for the lowliest of people and that includes us. When we feel unworthy to be loved may we remember the great love of Jesus who gave up the glories of Heaven to come down to this earth in order to save us from our sins. As we celebrate Christmas this year may we be reminded that we aren’t just celebrating the Savior but we are celebrating our Savior! May you and your family be blessed this Christmas season!

Blessings,
Michael
